Every Day She Said

Early in the morning before dressing, "Now I must quit drinking coffee, I know it causes my weak heart and the ever increasing nervousness. These troubles get steadily worse, and what will the end be?" But when the coffee comes on at breakfast she says, "Well, just this one and the bodily ailments growing worse as time goes on. The coffee habit acts like a personal demon, ever Bishop Granbery Presided and ready to offer excuses and to steadily push his victim Preached to Large Congregation.

cup," and so it goes from day to day, the same old round, one step down each day and laugh at the good resolutions. But there's a way, and a sure way, to kill off that demon. Order the Coffee kept off the table and Postum Food Coffee served in its place. Then one can have the hot breakfast beverage, with the deep seal brown of coffee, changing to a rich golden brown when cream is added, and, with a flavor all its own, the Postum comes as a strong friend in need.

The change in feeling will begin within a day or two, generally the first day. The drug of coffee (caffeine) has been cut off and the body and nerves relieved, then comes the sturdy feeling of new life and new healthy cells being built in from the rebuilding food in Postum. Gradually the old aches and ails disappear, and the joy and swing of health comes again. You can prove it in your own case.

THE CALL OF

THE BLOOD By Robert Hichens

The author of that great book "The Garden of Allah," has written a greater story, which the publishers are now giving to the world.

It is a wonderful story-a story physical life - a story which brands itself upon the mind with

The scenes are laid in the the Mediterranean islands -Sicily. Here the hero and heroine come from England to spend their honeymoon. In the man's veins runs a strain of Southern blood. which is roused by the environment of his fathers' land and by the beauty of an alluring young
